START TOURISM OFFICE

1 OLD MANOR HOUSE LE MINTIER

2, rue Saint-Gouéno

To the left when leaving the Tourism Office ; then take the third street on the right

Imposing renaissance style granite facade. Facade and roofing listed as Historic Monuments in 1935.

2 BELLESCIZE PAVILION AND GARDEN Place des Droits de l'Homme

Straight along Rue Saint-Gilles: square to the left behind the cathedral

Free entry to the hall from Monday to Friday only : 8:30 - 12:00 / 13:30 - 17:00

The entrance building is entirely taken up by a staircase made from monolithic stone with Doric columns. Residence of the bishops of Saint-Brieuc, this refined oval construction was added to the list of historic monuments in 1970.

3 SAINT-ÉTIENNE'S CATHEDRAL Place du Général de Gaulle

Every day 10:00 - 18:00 (partial visit during renovation)

Saint-Etienne's Cathedral is one of the few fortified churches in Brittany. A milestone of the Tro-Breizh, a Breton pilgrimage, the current cathedral, in a gothic style, was built on a fen from the 13th to the 18th century. The Tour Marie, the altarpiece and the large Cavallé-Coll organ are noteworthy.

4 SAINT-ESPRIT HÔTEL AND TOWER 9, place du Général de Gaulle

in front of the cathedrale

Free entry via the entrance to the courtyard

From Monday to Friday
8:30 - 12:30 / 13:30 - 17:30

An imposing Breton manor house characteristic of the end of the Middle Ages. Body of the building with several levels and harmonious. Polygonal tower including two old granite staircases and a pepperbox roof.

5 NOTRE DAME D'ESPÉRANCE BASILICA Place Saint-Pierre

Open all year round (entry via the side gate)

Go left up the small Saint-Pierre street towards the basilica.

With its green copper roof, the basilica displays its elegant architecture. Impressive monumental pulpit made from wood, statue of Saint-Pierre, model of the SS France, ex-voto.

6 OLD MARKET BUILDINGS Place du Martray

Go back down to the left of the cathedral.

Previously closed, as their Baltard-style metallic architecture shows, these buildings were constructed in the time of Gustave Eiffel. They have been listed as a Historic Monument since 1986.

GOURMAND BREAK ON YOUR ROUTE...

Cocotte et Moustache

9 place du Martray | 02.96.62.0730

Tearoom - canteen - tea shop

Tuesday to Saturday - Continuous service from 11:30 am to 6 pm | 2 terraces (one is covered)

8 MAISON LE RIBEAULT

1, place au Lin (via rue Fardel)

15th century. Imposing corbelled house (overhanging features on the walls), with a gable looking onto the street. The building is worth a visit for its historic value: it is the oldest house in the town.

9 HÔTEL DES DUCS DE BRETAGNE 15, rue Fardel

Go up the cobbled street behind the market buildings.

16th century. A magnificent half-timbered house (framework in wood and hollow core planks, which form the walls and play a role in filling and stiffening), several heads of lions and soldiers wearing helmets. Listed since 1889.

10 SAINT-BRIEUC FOUNTAIN NOTRE-DAME DE LA FONTAINE CHAPEL Rue Ruffelet

Open some days during the summer

At the top of Rue Fardel, cross onto the small street Rue Jean Kuster and turn left onto Rue Notre-Dame.

Brieuc landed in the mouth of the Gouët around 485. Here he built his first oratory near to a Gallo-Roman spring; a 15th century chapel and high altar displaying the effigies of the 7 founding saints of Brittany, particularly honoured during Tro Breiz, a medieval pilgrimage.

11 MAISON DE LA BARRIÈRE 16, rue de Gouët

Go back down towards the market buildings and cross the Place de la Grille towards the small roundabout. Join Rue de Gouët.

16th century. A listed historic monument since 1928, its name comes from its location on a rampart walk of Guet, where there was a gate and an excise duty (an old tax on food products entering the town). With a red facade, a half-timbered medieval house, with carved wall plates (decorative wooden beams on the facade).

12 MARSHAL FOCH STREET 23 & 27 rue du Maréchal Foch

This street has kept several newer half-timbered houses (early 18th century) like n°27 which has been recently repainted.

Did you know? Marshal Foch married a local woman in the Saint-Michel church you can see up this street.
